the focus

Turn to: John 14: 6; John 5:39

Why study the life of Christ in evangelism and discipleship?

Turn to: Hebrews 4:15 - 16

- I. What are two main objectives that governed His earthly life?

A. Objective 1: He was here to go to the _____ to _____ us from our _____. (Matthew 1:21 ; John 4:42 ; Matthew 18:11)

B. Objective 2: He was also here to _____ His _____ that will never _____. (Matthew 16:18 ; Zechariah 6:12- 13 ; Acts 2:47 ; Ephesians 3:1 - 6)

C. He was very clear on His _____ in this life. (John 4:34 ; 6:38 ; 17:4 ; 5:30 ; 8:29 ; 9:4 ; Luke 2:49 ; John 2:4)

"What he said and did ... had significance because it contributed to the ultimate purpose of His life in redeeming the world for God"

Coleman

II. As such, His life was _____ by the Father's _____ which was these two objectives.

Throughout His life, Christ never lost sight of His goal: there was no wasted energy, not an idle word. He was on business for God. We are studying His life closely to see how He manoeuvred His life to achieve His objective, so that we can manoeuver our life to achieve the objectives He has for us. For ultimately, we do His will, His way, to glorify Him, and as we do, He comforts us, guides us, and gives us the fulfillment in our life and the abundant life that we yearn for (John 10:10)
